

- Strict adherence to the Code of Student Conduct is critical during these times.
- Access to facilities and services will be significantly limited.
- Official and unofficial student activities and gatherings will be discontinued.
- A pro-rated credit will be applied for housing and meal plans in accordance with financial aid guidelines.
- Students with an outstanding balance after the application of the housing credit will not available for review in Banner.

- Course listings for the fall 2020 term are scheduled for release on Friday, March 20th.
- Students are encouraged to virtually meet with their academic advisor before registering for courses.
-